GOAL: Increase the prevalence of children ages 4-10 at a healthy weight in the city of Rochester

- Increase physical activity and improve nutrition in schools, home and community
- Advance policy and practice solutions
- Execute a community communications campaign
- Engage the clinical community

Tactics create a surround strategy to reach children before, during, and after school including summer.